Sunday Offertory*OLQP $ 1142.<sup>00</sup>*St. Aloysius $ 1493.<sup>10</sup>*From the desk of the pastor...

THE STORY is told about a bear, a lion and a pig who were contesting who, among them, was the most feared of all.

"I growl" said the bear, "and the forest trembles." "I roar" said the lion, "and the jungle shakes." And what did the pig say? "I sneeze and the whole world panics."

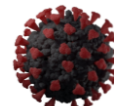

In today's Gospel (Mk. 4, 35-41) we hear of a situation filled with fear that turned out to be a situation filled with faith. Fearful disciples, after the calming of the storm by Jesus, became faithful followers.

While a lot of us are just thinking about our exit from this life, a lot of people are fearful (because of their own folly) about their exit from politics, or from a dark relationship, or from a wrongdoing. Indeed, we multiply our fears by our own doing and undoing. Envy not those who are in the limelight but are so afraid of their own shadow. How far better to be poor and simple than to be rich and fearful. Turn to the Lord, follow the path of righteousness and all fear will be gone.

Today is Father's Day. Here is one definition of a father: "A father is one who used to have money in his wallet, but now only the pictures of his loved ones." There have been fathers who used to be so engrossed in their work, career or what have you, but who through the years have been mellowed, either by default or by circumstance or by tragedy and have become more focused on God and on their family. Blessed are they for having been given the chance to mend to reform their ways. We extend to you our gratitude for your support and understanding and we give to you our sincere prayers and blessing.

Life is short and uncertain, so let this be our sincere and humble prayer: "As long as I am alive, Father, in gratitude, let me serve you; in humility, let me reach out to the people who need you; and in your mercy, let me do my mission for you. Amen."

Fr. Luis

Update to Lockdown Measures

Premier Doug Ford announced that Step One of the Reopening Strategy begins at 12:01 am on Friday, June 11th, 2021 - the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

As of Friday June 11, 2021 - these provisions will apply as follows:

- The capacity for indoor religious services, rites, and ceremonies including weddings is limited to 15% capacity of the church.
- Outdoors religious services, rites, and ceremonies including weddings are permitted with capacity limited to permit physical distancing of 2 metres.
- Drive-In religious services continue in accordance with the legislation.
- Parish halls remain closed during Step One.
- Funeral services and visitations (regulated by the Bereavement Authority of Ontario) have new restrictions starting on Friday, June 11th:
  - Indoors – Maximum of 15 percent capacity of a particular room to a maximum of 50 attendees in the entire facility
  - Outdoors – Two metres physical distancing to a maximum of 50 attendees

The health precautions pertaining to the wearing of face masks, physical distancing and handwashing/cleaning, etc. remain in effect.
