From the Desk of the Pastor...

We live in a world where it often feels like the loud, hostile, or dishonest voices win. Like the prophet Jeremiah in the first reading, we might feel surrounded by terror on every side, worried about what people think of our faith, our choices, or our values.

Jesus reminds us of the ultimate truth: the opinions of the world are fleeting. God sees the reality of your heart. You don't need to exhaust yourself managing your reputation or fearing the judgment of others. Truth has a way of outlasting malice.

Jesus calls us from a proper perspective that we, "should not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul". The world can damage our bank accounts, our physical health, our social status, and—in extreme cases—our bodies. But the world cannot touch your soul unless you let it.

Christ invites us to a deeper holy fear (reverence) for God, which actually frees us from worldly anxiety. When our primary concern is staying connected to the Divine, the standard threats of everyday life lose their teeth.

The most tender image in the Gospel today was, "the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid, you are worth more than many sparrows". A sparrow was the cheapest livestock you could buy in the ancient market, yet God watches over every single one. If God tracks the life of a single bird, how much more is He intimately aware of your struggles, your silent heartbreaks, and your daily worries?

You are not an anonymous face in a crowd of billions. To God, you are known completely, loved entirely, and uniquely sustained.

The next time a wave of anxiety hits you—whether it's about your family, your future, or your faith—try to pause and picture the sparrows. Anxiety tells us we are alone and responsible for everything. Jesus tells us we are safe in the hands of a Father who numbers the very hairs on our heads. Take a deep breath, hand the weight over to Him, and let Him be the "mighty champion" at your side.

What is one specific fear you can hand over to God the Father today?

A blessed Sunday and Happy Fathers' Day!

Fr. Erwin

Father's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,
we thank You for the gift of fathers.
You entrust them with the sacred duty
of reflecting Your love, protection, and guidance.

Bless all fathers—those with us today and those who live now in Your eternal care. Grant them wisdom in their decisions, patience in their struggles,
and strength in their responsibilities.

Fill their hearts with compassion and humility, that they may lead their families with faith, love, and integrity.

Comfort fathers who feel burdened or discouraged and reassure them of Your constant presence. Heal relationships where there is distance or hurt,
and restore peace where it is needed.

May all fathers look to Saint Joseph,
faithful guardian of the Holy Family,
as their model and intercessor.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A reminder that staff will never request you buy gift cards to help them with a financial barrier. Please contact the office if you receive any request, you think may be fraudulent.
