From the desk of the pastor...

Two members of a church disagreed over a trivial matter. The disagreement hardened into ill-will and hatred. A friend became distressed about the situation.

"I'm going to do what I can to heal the breach between my friends," he said to himself.

He called on his friend Bert first and asked him, "What do you think of my friend Tommy?" "Think of him?" flashed Bert. "He is contemptible in my sight!" "But," said the peacemaker, "you must admit he is very kind to his family." "Yes, that's true. He is kind to his family."

Next day, the peacemaker called to see his friend Tommy. "Do you know what Bert said about you?"

"No, but I can imagine the dirty, unkind things he would say about me!" "Well," said the peacemaker, "he said that you are very kind to your family!"

"What! Did he say that?" exclaimed Tommy. "He surely did. Now, what do you think of Tommy?" "I think he is a scamp and a rascal," said Bert. "But," said the peacemaker, "you will have to admit that he is an honest man." "Yes, he is honest, but what has that to do with it?"

The next day the peacemaker called on Tommy and said, "Do you know that Bert said that you are a very honest man?" "You don't mean it," said Tommy. "I do mean it. I heard him say it with my own ears!"

The next Sunday, Bert and Tommy met in Church, this time more friendly and joyful in each other's company.

One of the themes of this 14th Sunday of the year is PEACE. In sending out his 72 disciples, Jesus gave the following instruction: "Whatever house you enter, let your first words be 'Peace to this house!'" (Lk 10:5).

If we wish to be Christian peacemakers, we have to see what's good in people who are at odds instead of reporting to both parties what would aggravate an already strained relationship. Whenever possible, he must be, as the Scripture puts it, a "lamb among wolves" (Lk 10:3), a reconciler.

Blessings to you all,

Fr. Luis

O Lord, make us mindful of your generosity, and glad to do your will.

Bless our land with honest industry, truthful education and an honourable way of life.

Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride, arrogance and from every evil course of action.

Make us, who come from many different backgrounds and countries, a united people – one in purpose and vision.

Give our government a spirit of wisdom and compassion that there may be justice and peace in our land.

When times are prosperous, lead us to thanksgiving and when times are troubled, lead us to a deepening trust in you.

All this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Did you know?

"It is an indictment of us as a society when people feel that they have lost their dignity at the end of life. Why have we made them feel less dignified? It's not the job of a dying person to feel significant; it's our job to show them that they are significant."

INDIGENOUS RECONCILIATION FUND

The Bishop's Appeal for 2022 will take place on the weekends of July 2/3 and July 9/10, and it has been designated for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund.
