From the desk of the pastor...

Have you ever noticed how some people have the gift of hospitality? They are admirable. Others find it a bother, wishing like Mary that they could have the “better part.”

Hospitality is work. If cleanliness is next to godliness, then hospitality is many steps closer. Hospitality is a virtue of our faith and it is an absolute necessity for our parishes if they would be vital and inviting places for God’s kingdom to be built. Often the challenge for a parish to be welcoming is beyond its control. If they get too big, it’s hard to know anyone, or feel in a real way that you belong. Still, the biggest cities are really just many small neighborhoods. If we would be hospitable, then small is a virtue. “Hi, I see your hair is done differently”, a small thing to notice another, in a small way, but it can make a difference. Small communities of faith work well because they create an environment small enough for real openness and real listening, real attending to one another. We share common thinking and problems; we share similar hopes and dreams. Faith draws us and holds us.

Hospitality requires “an attitude of gratitude”. I am loved by God, extravagantly. When I am hospitable to others, I am simply returning God’s kindness to me. I’m giving to others a small part of what has been given to me. I’m giving that fundamental life-giving gift, and it will only ennoble me and enlarge me. It may take time and effort, but it will never diminish me.

Blessings to all!

- Fr. Luis

Bp. Daniel Miehm welcomes into the Diocese of Peterborough:

Fr. Jithin Jose, CMI, has arrived from India and is appointed the associate pastor of St. Alphonsus Parish in Peterborough, where he will assist Fr. Joshy George, CMI.

Fr. Neil Pereira is on loan to us from the Archdiocese of Toronto and will serve as the new campus minister to Trent University and Fleming College. He will reside at the Cathedral Rectory in Peterborough. Fr. Neil has kindly offered to assist in parishes this summer and you may reach him by phone at the Cathedral or at his email frneilpereira@peterboroughdiocese.org.

A Summer Prayer

Father, Creator of all,
thank you for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.
Thank you for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation.
Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace
of the summer season.

Draw me closer to you this summer.
Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am
or what I am doing.
Warm my soul
with the awareness of your presence
and light my path
with your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy your creation,
create in me a pure heart
and a hunger and a thirst for you.

Amen.
