Glancing Thoughts
20th Sunday of Ordinary Time
By Eleonore Stump

On Fire

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus says that he has come to set the world on fire. This fire, he says, will destroy peace. It will produce divisions even within a family.

Is this nice? Is this loving? Aren't we supposed to live in peace with everybody? How can Jesus say he came on purpose to set things on fire?

Well, what is peace anyway?

If you love the Lord's goodness and your neighbour's, then you will hate the evil your neighbour is doing.

Peace is a kind of order and unity, isn't it? We have peace with other people when we are at one with each other—and when our oneness unites us around goodness. That last condition matters. A mother who is at one with her toddler because she does everything he wants does not have peace. She just has capitulation to his baby will, and her knuckling under to him might be very destructive to him. Peace results only when she and her toddler at one with each other in what is good for both of them, for her as mother and for him as baby.

And, of course, the same point applies to adults. If you hear your neighbour's wife screaming because he is beating her, then there is no peace in your trying to be at one with him. If you try to see things from the point of view of that wife-beater and just accept what he is doing, you are not at peace with him. You are just complicit in his crime. Even if you only try not to get involved, turning up the TV louder so you can't hear her cries, you are not at peace with him. You are only conniving at his evil and adding your own cowardice to the list of your sins.

So there is no peace for you in your failure to confront a wrongdoer. And notice that your failure to confront him doesn't result in peace for him either. We have it on the authority of scripture that there is no peace for the wicked. (Isaiah 48:22, 57:21)

So if you hear your neighbour beating his wife, call 911, or grab your baseball bat and go next door. Do what it takes to stop him. If you love the Lord's goodness and your neighbour's, then you will hate the evil your neighbour is doing.

So be on fire for goodness. Our God is a consuming fire of love, and there is peace for us only if we are at one with him in that fire.

We wish him a speedy recovery!

PRAYER FOR THE SICK
"YOUR HEALING PRAYER"

Lord,
heal my friend from their sickness. There is no earthly disease, sickness, or disaster that is too big for You and Your healing, Lord. I pray that Your hand be at work in the life of my friend, and You guide the sickness out of their body. You are the Great Healer, and I have total faith that You can help relieve them of this. Thank You, Jesus, for Your mighty protection.
Amen.

From the Diocese of Peterborough*“Now what?” - The next step of the Pastoral Planning Process

About 4000+ people participated online or in person in the combined synodal process / Diocesan Pastoral Planning Process.

Reading through the Infographic and the Synthesis, it is evident that some matters are within the scope of the universal Church, but many matters are within the scope of the Diocese of Peterborough and/or the parishes. These latter issues and priorities represent important information for the Diocesan Pastoral Planning Process.

For that reason, the next phase is called “Now What?” and it will focus on identifying local issues and priorities for the Pastoral Planning Process in the Diocese.

You are invited to have your say!

An online survey is open from July 30 until September 16, 2022.

DIOCESAN PASTORAL PLANNING

Heavenly Father,
you have called us to be Your people and to journey in faith, hope, and love.
May we face all challenges along the way,
confident in the light of Your grace.

Christ, Good Shepherd,
Help us listen to Your voice and follow You,
so that our lives may be transformed.
May we in turn reflect Your loving care for all the members of Your flock.

Holy Spirit, flame of Love,
Empower us with Your gifts to build up the
