From the desk of the pastor...

His Ascension was not a separation. Neither was it a “retirement from public service” after accomplishing His mission. Rather, it signified His exaltation as universal sovereign Lord of heaven after a fruitful life on earth.

Jesus Himself described His return to the Father as an “ascending movement” which began in humiliation and suffering and ended in His glorification. “Did not the Christ have to suffer... before entering into His glory?” (Lk 24:26).

In the Ascension episode, the Acts of the Apostles record Jesus telling His disciples “you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem...and to the ends of the earth.”

The story is told about an American army chaplain who had just preached a homily at a Mass for American servicemen in a cathedral in Europe. The theme of the homily was: “Be proud of your Catholic faith; don’t be ashamed to practice it in public.”

After the Mass, a sailor, obviously moved by the homily, approached the chaplain and asked to go to confession. The chaplain agreed and the sailor knelt down right on the sidewalk in front of the cathedral. “Never mind kneeling,” said the chaplain. “People will be staring at us.”

“The heck with them, Father,” the sailor said. “Didn’t you say, Don’t be afraid to practice your faith in public?”

The sailor’s spirit of witness might be exaggerated but he surely knew how to practice it.

May the feast of the Ascension remind us of the mission entrusted to us by the Lord to spread the Good News of salvation by words and deeds, wherever and whoever we are.

Fr. Luis
