From the Desk of the Pastor...

The readings of today revolve around the basic idea of mission. Amos, not originally “a prophet,” but a “shepherd and a dresser of sycamores,” was chosen by God to “go, and prophesy to the people of Israel.” St. Paul, for his part, thanks and glorifies God, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world.” In the Gospel, Jesus sent out his disciples two by two to “preach repentance.”

We are called. We are sent. We are chosen and called to proclaim and prophesy on God's behalf. The mission is without challenges, difficulties and problems!

Amos, for one, drew the ire of the priest Amaziah. Amaziah even made use of his connections and denounced him before King, warning the King that Amos had conspired against him. (Amos 7:10-11) The twelve, sent two by two, were told by Jesus to go and preach, taking with them only the barest minimum, and forewarned them of the possibility of being rejected by the very people they would be ministering to.

Like Amos, modern-day prophets sent by God are told to preach elsewhere, but should have nothing to do with whatever people do in the privacy of their bedrooms and homes! Pastors, who happen not to fit the frames of “ideal pastors” in the minds of moneyed and powerful blocks, are unceremoniously removed from office on account of some of these so-called petitions from “power-brokers” from within our communities? How often have our pastors, including bishops, been crucified on account of their standing steadfast with the official teachings of the Church as articulated by the Holy Father?

Today is a good opportunity for us to reflect on acceptance of the God-sent prophets in our midst. The choosing, the calling, and the sending – as we have seen – belong to God and God alone. Our response of acceptance? “I will hear what God proclaims” . . . Our prayer? “Lord, let us see your kindness and grant us your salvation!”

Volunteers Needed: At this time a new caretaker needs to be recruited for our parishes. As this may take a few months, Fr. Luis is asking for volunteers - once a week through the summer, to clean the churches. This will include dusting, vacuuming and tidying. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church to add your name to the week you can help. If you have questions, please speak to Father Luis or contact the office.

St. Aloysius:

Votive Candles: We would like a volunteer to manage the votive candles at the back of the church. It would require replenishing the candles and cleaning the stand. If you have any questions please see or call Laura Sutton at 705-887-9494.

OLQP:

Food Bank: Welcome to all our summer parishioners! Historically our food donations slow down with summer busy-ness and this year is no exception. This year, however, the Food Bank is really stretched in conjunction with all others in Canada due to the high cost of living. Support is essentially crucial as all the school meal programs are cancelled during the summer holidays, leaving parents with extra need. Please give at the donation boxes at our grocery stores as you can, the need is there and help is really appreciated. Thank you so much in advance!

PRAYER FOR THOSE AFFECTED BY HURRICANE BERYL

God, as this storm passes, may your Spirit move as it did in the beginning, bringing order to chaos, peace in anxiety and hope for the future. Our faith is in You, confident that this is your land and we are Your people. Your children, today more than ever, need your protection and provision, that you listen to them and watch over them. May Your grace be manifested and Your love abound. May they see in You a God who is greater than any fear and storm, a God who never abandons his people. Our faith is in You.
 By the mercy of Christ, we pray. Amen

July 2024 Prayer Intentions: For pastoral care of the sick

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

“Let us pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick grant the Lord’s strength to those who receive it and to their loved ones, and that it may become for everyone an ever more visible sign of compassion and hope.” – Pope Francis

The Pope is inviting the Church to pray for the pastoral care of the sick during the month of July 2024. In a recent video, he recalled that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not only for people at death’s doorstep. “If someone thinks that a priest offering the sacrament means that they are about to die”, said the Pope, “they have embraced a hopeless vision”. “Let us remember that the Anointing of the Sick is one of the ‘sacraments of healing,’ of ‘restoration,’ that heals the spirit,” said the Pope. He added that the sacrament is always available for people who are ill, especially the elderly.

“When a person is very ill,” he said, “it’s advisable to give them the Anointing of the Sick.” Pope Francis concluded by praying that the sacrament may become a more visible sign of compassion and hope.
