From the Desk of the Pastor...

Something worth noting: Jesus is spoken of as teaching rather than preaching. There is a difference. The art of teaching is to bring the learner from the known to the unknown. Jesus speaks of fish, of sheep, of vines, of trees, of water, etc., all of which would be there within the view of his listeners. The Acts of the Apostles begins by telling us that Jesus came to do and to teach. A cynic described education as a process in which information is transferred from the notebook of the teacher to the notebook of the student, without having passed through the heads of either! Jesus spoke and taught from the heart, and what comes from the heart of the speaker always reaches the heart of the listener. In himself, Jesus was the message, and that was what gave weight and power to his words.

Today's gospel begins by telling us that the people had gathered and were listening to the word of God. Jesus is the Word of God, the message and the promise of God. It is very important that we listen.

Jesus came to look for, to seek out sinners, and to bring them safely home. Peter totally failed to grasp, when he asked Jesus to leave him. The correct prayer would be: Lord, please stay with me, because I am a sinner. Please don't leave me because, apart from you, I'm totally lost. And, of course, the whole message of Jesus is to reassure sinners that he is always there for them. Peter was only too well aware of his brokenness, and many later episodes in the gospel will point to and confirm that fact. It is significant that Jesus made Peter head of the apostles. The principle of evangelising is that one sinner tells another, just as with Alcoholics Anonymous, where one recovering alcoholic helps another achieve sobriety.

PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS
"HEALING FROM SIN"

Lord God,
my sins are many, and they have left many wounds. I have sinned against You, but I have also sinned against my fellow man. I have not loved Your words and commandments as I should. Lord, I ask that You reach out with Your healing hand and touch me. Take away all sins and all their effects from my whole being,
that I may uphold Your image in my life. Forgive me my trespasses, that I may learn to forgive others.
Amen.
