From the desk of the pastor...

Today, the Holy Gospel suggests to us that life lived apart from our Lord Jesus Christ is meaningless and without purpose. Jesus himself talks about the need to be attached to him. We can readily appreciate the importance of relationship in a day when human relations are extremely difficult. What Jesus suggests, however, is that all human relations are dependent upon him. We just cannot be wishy-washy in our relationship with Jesus. It is either we are for Jesus or against Jesus, no middle ground.

Well, how about this joke to drive my point!

A man was going to a costume party dressed as the Devil - red suit, pointy tail and pitchfork. As he walked, it began to rain and he looked for shelter. The only place was a little country church, so in he went. It just so happened they were holding a revival meeting that night. When people turned and saw the Devil, they dived for the exits. One poor fellow's coat got caught on a pew. As the man in the costume approached, he turned and cried "Mr. Devil, I've been a member of this church for 30 years, but I've been on your side all along."

Friends, we draw life from Our Lord who is the Vine. We discover that we not only live in Him by love and grace, and He in us, but also, we are able to live in one another through love and grace.

With Jesus, we can do anything, but separated from Jesus, we are good for nothing.

God bless,

Fr. Luis
