From the Desk of the Pastor...

Temptation is an ever-present reality in life. Even the Lord himself was tempted. In today’s gospel, Jesus was tempted by the devil. The common denomination of the three temptations is the seduction of ease and convenience, the lure of shortcuts to saving the world. The devil tempts Jesus to opt for the easy way of attracting people rather than the long and difficult Way of the Cross in accordance with the Father’s will.

This temptation of Jesus by the devil can be a temptation for each one of us everyday of our lives. The urge to be true to God is real but so is the urge to be untrue. St. Paul in his letter to the Romans said: “I can’t understand myself; for I don’t do what I would like to do but instead I do what I hate,” (7:15).

As we all know God permitted Satan to test Job in the Old Testament to prove his virtue, but it was not God who tempted him. It was Satan. Also, God does not will evil, but He allowed it by not preventing it. Temptations may play a positive role in our Christian lives, that is, to make strong.

Temptation is not a sin. It comes from the devil. God only tests us. Only when we give in to an ‘indecent proposal’ that sins happen. God tests someone to know how good he is. It’s like a woman testing the fidelity of her suitor. It is like a gold tested by fire, so we are tested so that our faith and love may be truly pure. God tests us not to make life more difficult for us but to make us better persons. God tests us so that we can prove whether we are on Satan’s or God’s side.

Temptation can also come in the form of choosing the easy way out. Temptation can also come in the form of telling a lie because you are afraid to be punished or to be humiliated.

March 2025 Prayer Intentions: For families in crisis

The Pope entrusts his Worldwide Prayer Network each month with prayer intentions that express his deep concerns for humanity and the mission of the Church. His monthly prayer intention is a global call to transform our prayers into "concrete actions," serving as a compass for a mission of compassion for the world. In this way, he proposes a path to mobilize us each month, through prayer and action, for a more humane, fraternal, and solidary world.

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.
