From the Desk of the Pastor...

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is referred to by many Catholics as the “Good Shepherd Sunday.” The Gospel reading, albeit very short, clearly points out that Jesus Christ is our Good Shepherd and that all of us should listen to and heed His call: “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of My hand.” (John 10:27-28)

In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas emphasize the need for listening first to the Gospel before preaching it to the people: “It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you.” (Acts 13:46)

Indeed, we must first listen to the call and respond to it before we let other people listen and respond to God’s invitation. If we ourselves are attentive to the voice of the Shepherd, we can be assured that people will follow us because of our witnessing God’s call.

In our society today, it is very difficult to listen. There are many people who claim to have all the solutions to the problems that confront us. We ourselves have the tendency to talk too much and forget to listen to others.

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we are reminded once again that if we want to share in the joy of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we must be able to always listen to the voice of God. How can we listen to God’s voice? First, let us make it a point to read the Sacred Scriptures. We can pray to Him in silence so we can hear His voice within us. But it is very important that we persevere because there are times when our prayers seem unanswered but it does not mean that God does not listen to our prayers.

The path to the Kingdom of God is a narrow one but we are assured by Jesus, who once walked through the path of righteousness and peace that glory and triumph await us.

Blessings from our Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd!

- Fr. Luis

A Mother's Day Blessing

This Mother's Day, we honour and lift up all mothers—those with us and those who live on in eternal light.

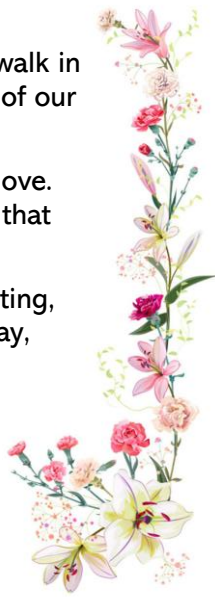

Heavenly Father, thank You for the gift of motherhood. Bless all mothers with Your grace as they walk in love, courage, and selfless devotion. May they be inspired by the faithfulness of Mary, the Mother of our Lord, and may they always feel Your presence beside them.

Our mothers are earthbound angels, sent to guide us, nurture us and show us the face of Your love. Though they may not wear halos, their years of sacrifice and quiet strength reveal a divine light that shines through every hug, every word of encouragement and every sleepless night.

To our mothers: thank you for the countless ways you've shaped our lives—for listening, comforting, guiding and believing in us. You have made our world better. We carry your love always—today, tomorrow and into eternity.

May God bless you mothers, wherever you are. You are cherished beyond words.

Happy Mother's Day

Prayer for Pope Leo XIV

Faithful God,
 You guide us on the path of life
 and your goodness is our constant companion.
 Be with our new Shepherd, Pope Leo XIV,
 in his service of the Church.
 Fill him with the power of your Spirit,
 the peace of your presence
 and the compassion of Christ.
 May he walk with you,
 in wisdom and humility,
 and lead us, together with all God's people,
 to embody your love for the world.
 Amen.
