From the desk of the pastor...

Fathers are expected to be loving, forgiving, and selfless. Unfortunately, not a few fall short of this expectation. And even the very good ones sometimes do fail, due to the weakness of human nature. There is only one father who never lets down any of his children, and continually takes to heart the full happiness of all of them. This ideal father is GOD. He alone meets the standard of perfect fatherhood.

The perfect Father has a personal name – LOVE. All His deeds are deeds of love: a love that is like a symphony resulting from the combination of the many harmonious notes of His power, mercy, forgiveness, providence, faithfulness, self-giving, communion. God’s love is rooted in His own eternity. He has loved His people with an everlasting love.

The greatest sign of the divine love for all is the gift of God’s only Son. But humanity has sinned. In one way or another, they have all rejected God. But God never rejected us. True to His nature, He did not abandon sinful mankind. True love never gives up. God allowed His only Son to die – the just for the unjust – that all of them might have eternal life and enjoy the gift of an undeserved sonship.

Jesus revealed the Father’s love to Nicodemus on the night of the secret meeting, and he would prove it by dying on the cross. The same message is addressed to us today. We, too, need to know and be convinced of God’s tremendous love for us.

Knowing this, we should respond with appreciation, gratitude, cooperation, and imitation. There is nothing that we can do to deserve God’s love, but there is a lot we can do to make it bear fruit in ourselves and around us. It is now our turn to show in practice that we have learned the most important lesson in life: to love God in return and to love one another as He has done.

Happy Joyful Sunday.

Fr. Luis

Update to Lockdown Measures

It remains critically important for each of us to continue following the COVID-19 health precautions.

This includes:

- staying home when ill, even with mild symptoms;
- practising physical distancing of 2 metres or 6 feet with those outside your household or social circle;
- protecting your social circle;
- wearing a face mask that covers the nose, mouth, and chin;
- washing your hands frequently and thoroughly;
- collecting the contact tracing information; and
- adhering to gathering limits and rules.

The Ontario law 364/20 requires that everyone attending the church must wear a face mask

COVID updates from the Diocese are available at

CWL Outreach: While the Food Banks priority must always be human food, clients also need some help with pet food. Dry dog and cat kibble would be very welcome as part of Lenten charity this March. It would be bagged and shared among those with pets and any pet treats would be offered for these animals so important as family members at this time. Thanks so much to the Parish family for ongoing support. Please consider donating in the designated boxes at our grocery stores and at the Food Bank itself, which is open 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Wednesdays.

THANK YOU!

Heartfelt Thanks to John Byrne...

COVID 19 has led to many trials and struggles for all of us but we have also experienced some special graces from God during this time. The parishioners of St. Aloysius and Our Lady Queen of Peace want to express their gratitude to our John Byrne for bringing us together in faith, to celebrate our Zoom Mass each Saturday evening. As we approach one year of Zooming, we are grateful for the fruits of John's efforts. A direct result of Zoom Mass is that we now have a Zoom Prayer Group and Zoom Stations of the Cross. John diligently promotes these activities every week and is the source of connectivity and technological issue resolution for our parishioners. We have experienced an awakening of faith in our communities. Sharing of good Catholic resources, asking for prayers for ourselves and others, we are speaking about our faith, asking questions, and getting excited. John, the seed you planted is growing and we thank you. God Bless you and your Zoom evangelization!

Friday Evening Way of the Cross Invitation
