Sunday Offertory

OLQP $ 280.00

St. Aloysius $ 145.00

From the desk of the pastor...

A teacher in religion asked her class what the name of the First Person of the Holy Trinity was. A boy promptly raised his hand and said: "Harold." Taken aback, the teacher replied, "Harold? How come?"

"Listen, ma'am," he said, then recited: "Our Father who art in heaven Harold be thy name... See, Harold is his name!"

If there's any consolation, the amusing story shows how mysterious the Holy Trinity is. This is the feast we celebrate this Sunday: three divine persons—God the Father, Son, Holy Spirit. All three are distinct but only one.

Why do we believe God as Trinity? For the simple reason that Christ revealed it to us. Our Lord said: "When the Paraclete comes, the Spirit of truth...whom I myself will send from the Father, he will bear witness on My behalf" (Jn 14:16).

Then there is Christ's final mandate: "Go, therefore, into the whole world, teach all nations, baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). Thus, we invoke the triune God when we make the Sign of the Cross.

How does the mystery fit into our day-to-day life as Christians? Well, the "Trinity is not a problem to be solved but a mystery to be lived." Unraveling the puzzle of the Trinity is not so important as living out its message in practical life.

If there are three persons in one God, then there has to be a community intimately united by the bond of love. So, they don't need a cellular phone or e-mail to communicate with one another!

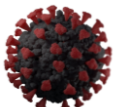

Do we reflect the Trinitarian love in our communities? For instance, if we are aware that our families are images of the Trinitarian Family, it would help married people, for instance, to overcome the difficult moments of their lives.

How about our prayer communities, our schools, our offices and workplaces? Do they reflect the Trinitarian community in regard to unity, justice and love?

Obviously, we can – and will never – achieve a perfect unity, a perfect family, or a perfect community, but the most we can do is try. As one spiritual writer puts it, "God does not expect us to be perfect, but to keep trying and growing."

Fr. Luis

Update to Lockdown Measures

Below is the Information from the Bishop concerning new restrictions announced May 20th for the Province of Ontario.

PETERBOROUGH, CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN DEANERIES

As of May 20, 2021 Doug Ford announced a three-step reopening plan for the Province of Ontario. The timelines are approximate, but the government has announced that each step will last for at least 21 days unless the metric listed below is achieved earlier.

The Churches and Missions will continue to limit the attendance to 10 people for all masses, weddings, and funerals (including the celebrant and liturgical ministers.)

Let us pray for all of those impacted by the pandemic and hold each other in our prayers.

The Ontario law 364/20 requires that everyone attending the church must wear a face mask
