From the Desk of the Pastor...

There are times when God tells us to “let go,” to trust Him even when His Will sounds absurd. In the gospel of this 19th Sunday, Jesus teaches the people about something that’s difficult to believe and sounds absurd.

He says, “I’m the bread that came down from heaven... the bread that I give is My flesh for the life of the world” (John 6:51).

The cynical people grumbled, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?” (Jn 6:5). “Cannibalism,” one might say today. The Church calls it “transubstantiation.”

Jesus said this because we have a soul, a spiritual life which needs spiritual nourishment. How can Jesus give His body and blood as our food and drink? Humanly speaking, we don’t know. But if He could use His power to feed 5,000 people with only five loaves of bread, so He could use His power to change bread into His body to feed thousands spiritually.

The essential condition is faith (trust) in Him. We are asked to believe even though we cannot understand how it all can happen. God’s word goes beyond the mystery of the Eucharist. In practical life, we’re also asked sometimes to accept God’s will even though it’s hard and bitter to take.

When such situations come our way, can we hold on? Can we make a “leap of faith” and still believe there’s a good and loving God?

- Fr. Luis

August 2024 Prayer Intentions: For Political Leaders

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

Pope Francis invites prayers "so that political leaders may serve their people, work for comprehensive human development and the common good, attending to those who have lost their jobs and prioritizing the poorest."

According to the Social Doctrine of the Church, politics should:

- Be at the service of the person and promote integral development.
- Promote solidarity among individuals and peoples.
- Promote social peace, international justice, and disarmament.
- Encourage citizen participation and transparency in making decisions.
- Foster sustainable policies that protect the planet.
