From the desk of the pastor...

We now come to the feast of Palm or Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday because on this day we commemorate the solemn entrance of Jesus to Jerusalem with the blessing of the palms; Passion Sunday because the Passion of the Lord (Mk. 14:1-15:47) is read at Mass thus ushering in the Holy Week and the celebration of the Paschal Mystery - the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

The over-all motif for Holy Week is found in Phil. 2:5-11 which is a summary of "the great mysteries of our redemption": Jesus, though Son of God, took the form of a man, obediently accepted "even death on a cross", so that in the end "God highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name above every name: ... Lord."

As we celebrate "the great mysteries of our redemption", we see illustrated the fickleness of man. On Palm Sunday the people cried their "Hosannahs". But on Good Friday they shouted, "Crucify Him!"

Today and in the following days, reflecting on the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, let us renew our commitment to follow Jesus as we struggle to die to ourselves so that Jesus will remain the Lord of our lives. Finally, let us humbly fall on our knees, examine the many ways we have betrayed Jesus through our sins, and ask for the gift to be always faithful in following Him.

God bless us all.

Fr. Luis

Update to Lockdown
Measures

It remains critically important for each of us to continue following the COVID-19 health precautions.

This includes:

- staying home when ill, even with mild symptoms;
- practising physical distancing of 2 metres or 6 feet with those outside your household or social circle;
- protecting your social circle;
- wearing a face mask that covers the nose, mouth, and chin;
- washing your hands frequently and thoroughly;
- collecting the contact tracing information; and
- adhering to gathering limits and rules.

The Ontario law 364/20 requires that everyone attending the church must wear a face mask

Holy Week: New Guidelines and Restrictions

The celebration of the Holy Week Liturgies this year will entail some challenges and additional precautions. Please see the changes listed below which describe the manner in which those liturgies are to be celebrated at our parishes.

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

- Palms may be distributed by an usher who is masked and gloved.
- Palms may be sprinkled, but the priest should not walk through the church unless he is masked.

Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper

- The optional washing of the feet following the homily is omitted.
- Following the Distribution of Holy Communion, ciboria with sufficient hosts for the next day are left on the altar.
- Following the Prayer after Communion, the priest should kneel before the altar and incense the Blessed Sacrament, allowing for several minutes of adoration. Afterwards the priest (and other ministers as necessary) takes the ciboria directly to the sacristy where the Blessed Sacrament is to be reserved. There is no solemn procession with the Blessed Sacrament at the conclusion of the Mass.
- The congregation leaves the church immediately after the departure of the ministers from the sanctuary. There is no period of adoration following the reservation of the Blessed Sacrament.

Good Friday – The Celebration of the Lord's Passion

- The Cross is processed from the sacristy to the sanctuary and may be led by two acolytes with candles. The priest takes the Cross and faces the people. If the Cross is veiled, he unveils it using the traditional formula. (Roman Missal p. 309). If the Cross is not veiled, he shows it to the people three times using the formula, "Behold the wood of the Cross, on which hung the salvation of the world." The people respond: "Come let us adore."
- The Cross is placed in a stand or on a table with lighted candles on each side. The priest and people kneel for a moment of silent prayer and then the priest alone kisses the Cross before proceeding to the Altar for the Communion rite.
- The altar is prepared, and the Communion Rite takes place as in the Roman Missal, page 317 ff. Communion is distributed in the usual manner in accordance with pandemic protocols.
- Following the Prayer after Communion and the Prayer over the People, the priest returns directly to the sacristy.
- Where it is customary or deemed pastorally necessary, an additional celebration of the Passion may take place.

Easter Vigil

- Gathering around a fire is not permitted and worshippers should remain in their pews. A simple Easter fire may be prepared inside or just outside the church doors from which the Paschal candle is lighted.
- The blessing of the fire and the lighting of the candle, and the Easter Proclamation take place as in the Roman Missal, pp. 324-344. Candles for the assembly may be used, provided they take them with them following the liturgy.

Easter Sunday Masses

- Easter Sunday Masses are celebrated as usual, including the Renewal of Baptism Promises (RM, p. 361) which takes the place of the Creed. The priest may sprinkle the assembly with holy water afterwards but must be masked if he leaves the sanctuary to do so.
