From the Desk of the Pastor...

The readings for the Sixth Sunday of Easter speak of the central message of Jesus' earthly ministry: love. In the Gospel, St. John records one of Jesus' final messages before His ascension into heaven. Here, Jesus reassures His friends that they will not be left as orphans. He promises to remain with them and guide them as they carry on the mission He has begun. This promise is fulfilled through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, whom He will send as the "Paraclete"—a guide and counsellor who will teach them all things and remind them of everything Jesus has said (John 14:26).

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, the disciples went on to proclaim the love of God in Jesus Christ to the world. Today, we continue their work. We are the modern-day apostles of Jesus Christ. He speaks to us through our liturgy and urges us with the same message He gave His disciples 2,000 years ago: "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, him and make our home with him" (John 14:23).

The love of Christ compels us to do the will of God. This love is not one-sided. If we love God and obey His will, His peace will be with us—a peace the world cannot give, a peace that brings lasting happiness. As Scripture reminds us, "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

If we do so, we will inherit the fullness of God's blessings.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created
And you shall renew the face of the earth.

O God, who instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant us in the same Spirit to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Faithful God,
 You guide us on the path of life
 and your goodness is our constant companion.
 Be with our new Shepherd, Pope Leo XIV,
 in his service of the Church.
 Fill him with the power of your Spirit,
 the peace of your presence and the compassion of Christ.
 May he walk with you,

 and lead us, together with all God's people,
 to embody your love for the world.
 Amen.
