From the Desk of the Pastor...

Saints Peter and Paul were examples of sacrificial leadership. Both of these saints were not perfect people, but two troubled people who fell short of their own expectations. But, in a very real way these two saints set before us a truth that by God's acceptance, forgiveness, mercy and grace can, within the miraculous work of reconciliation, transform and create a unity of friendship and love, where we come to God, rest in God. It is there we can let go of our fear, where we can discover hope, where we can experience acceptance.

St Peter, who denied Jesus, lied about his relationship with Jesus at the time of the crucifixion when Jesus most needed him. Jesus who looked at Peter in sadness and unconditional love, mercy and acceptance. It was Peter who became someone with a faith upon which Jesus could rely and trust. Commanded three times "feed my sheep", Peter was given the task to care for the growing number of Jesus-followers. It is Peter who speaks to the 'international' audience gathered on the day of Pentecost.

St Paul, who persecuted the early Jesus-followers, was confronted by Jesus with "why are you persecuting me", and was forgiven, called into friendship with Jesus, offered unconditional love. We witness in him a conversion of heart. It was Paul who was commissioned to preach the good news of God's love to all people: all people are God's people. It was Paul who played an important role in the growth and the understanding of faith in the early Church.

Two pillars of the church, ordinary people called to extraordinary vocations, they responded to that call. God used them in ways they could never have imagined. So too it is with us as we reflect upon our own calling in the light of theirs. God calls each of us to that great commission so that through us God can continue God's mission in the world.

- Fr. Luis

A Prayer for Canada Day

O Lord, make us mindful of your generosity, and glad to do your will.

Bless our land with honest industry, truthful education, and an honourable way of life.

Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride, arrogance, and from every evil course of action.

Make us, who come from many different backgrounds and countries, a united people – one in purpose and vision.

Give our government a spirit of wisdom and compassion that there may justice and peace in our land.

When times are prosperous, lead us to thanksgiving, and when times are troubled, lead us to a deepening trust in you.

All this we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Aloysius

St. Aloysius Ladies Group will meet on Thursday July 3rd after the 9:00 a.m. mass. Everyone is welcome to come and join!

OLQP

The Bobcaygeon Food bank is in need of supplies as the community continues to see a growth in food insecurity. They need nutritious non-perishables, healthy snacks, juice, canned fruit, peanut butter. Donations can be dropped off at the church, the local grocery stores or at 55 Main Street, Bobcaygeon on Wednesdays between 9:30 a.m. -11:00 a.m.

Thank you very much to everyone who joined Fr. Luis at all the farewell celebrations! It was a weekend of memories, fun and laughter. Thank you to Fr. Luis for his years of service at each of the parishes – you will be missed!

A big thank you to all the volunteers that worked so hard to make it a special time. We wish Fr. Luis all the best on his new adventure in retirement and welcome Fr. Erwin!

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

(released June 2025)

Lord, I come to your tender heart today, to you who have words that set my heart ablaze, to you who pour out compassion on the little ones and the poor, on those who suffer, and on all human miseries.

I desire to know you more, to contemplate you in the Gospel, to be with you and learn from you and from the charity with which you allowed yourself to be touched by all forms of poverty. You showed us the Father's love by loving us without measure with your divine and human heart.

Grant all your children the grace of encountering you. Change, shape, and transform our plans, so that we seek only you in every circumstance: in prayer, in work, in encounters, and in our daily routine.

From this encounter, send us out on mission, a mission of compassion for the world in which you are the source from which all consolation flows. Amen.
