From the Desk of the Pastor...

Jesus finds himself in the midst of a violent controversy in today's gospel. His family, the scribes and the people of Galilee are trying to decide who he is and what he is about. His relatives think that he is out of his mind. He is an agent of devil. He is possessed.

All of these can seem irrelevant to us because we have already decided who Jesus is. We believe him to be the Christ, the Son of the living God. But, how would you know whether Jesus' ministry was for good or for evil, whether it flowed from God or from the devil?

The Greek word for the devil is diabolos. From this comes the English word "diabolical," which means "from the devil." The root sense of diabolos is "the one who divides, the one who scatters." The devil divides, pulls things apart and tears things down. Now, do these actions characterize the mission of Jesus? Jesus is not a divider but one who calls people together. Jesus' work is not about division but about unity, not about pulling things apart but about welcoming people in.

The great symbol of our Catholic tradition is the Eucharist, the banquet of the Lord. Here we gather. Here we sing together. We hear the word of God as one community. We extend peace to one another. Here together we receive the body and blood of the Lord. The Eucharist is our symbol of unity. And, the Greek word for symbol is symbolon, which is the opposite of diabolos. Diabolos means to divide. Symbolon is a pulling together.

Let us be people who pull things together, who work across divisions, who build things up rather than tear things down.

- Fr. Luis

Supporting Our Fathers in the Faith

Retired priests have spent years ministering to our parish communities, offering guidance, support, and the sacraments. Now it's our turn to show our appreciation and ensure they are cared for in their retirement years. Your support of the Special Collection for the Priest Benefit Fund on June 15/16 will directly assist retired priests of our diocese with their essential needs, ensuring they can live with dignity as vital members of our community. Volunteers Needed: At this time a new caretaker needs to be recruited for our parishes. As this may take a few months, Fr. Luis is asking for volunteers - once a week through the summer, to clean the churches. This will include dusting, vacuuming and tidying. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church to add your name to the week you can help. If you have questions, please speak to Father Luis or contact the office.

OLOP:

Food Bank - Fire Update: All residents have temporary housing with one couple moving into permanent residence, with setting up help from the community committee. The response from Bobcaygeon has been very generous and with three storage lockers full of furniture in Lindsay and another here in Bobcaygeon full of clothing, linen, and household items we have run out of storage! The main challenge is finding accommodation, but help is being met with gratitude. It is a slow process. Thanks to the Parish Family for their kind support.

Come celebrate with us,
Fenelon Falls

June 2024 Prayer Intentions:
For migrants fleeing their homes

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

We pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them.
