From the Desk of the Pastor...

Everyone has a vocation. What is your vocation? Is it for priesthood? Religious? Married state of Life? Single blessedness? The concept of vocation comes from the Latin word “VOCARE”, a verb that means “to call.” Jesus has a “calling” from His Father to a ministry. His vocation is to proclaim the Good News in word and actions, to announce that the Reign of Heaven has begun, and to call others to help in spreading that Reign. The Apostles also receive a “calling.” Jesus calls them to leave their fishing nets and follow Him and they will be fishing for people, hauling them into the Reign of God by their actions and by their words.

In the olden times, “vocation” referred primarily to those called to dedicated church ministry, that is, ministers, priests, religious sisters and brothers – those committing their lives to Church service. Yet in the more recent teachings of the Church, the concept of “vocation” and ministry has returned to the Early Church’s concept of ministry. All members of the Church, by virtue of their Baptism, are called to ministry. Each Christian has a vocation to share in the proclamation of the Good News. We participate in the calling of Jesus, the Priest, the Prophet, and the King. This is our privilege and our duty. Every Christian is called to a ministry, a word that means “service.” The role of all Christians is to serve their sisters and brothers and to reflect Christ’s light on those around them. And all of us are called to do it full time. We are called to be secular ministers in the sense of being in the world yet serving others while we work. We are also called in varying degrees to give our talents and abilities in some form of Church service: as lectors, eucharistic ministers, musicians, catechists, ushers, and/or members of church organizations.

How awesome and humbling it is to think that God wants us to be a part of the ministry of Jesus. Yet, that is exactly what we are called to. Our vocation is both a gift from God and a responsibility to live lives that reflect our Lord Jesus, the Light of the world to those who are in the darkness around us. Henri Nouwen said, “My deepest vocation is to be a witness to the glimpse of God that I have been allowed to catch.”

Blessing everyone!

- Fr. Erwin

Planning for the Final Moments and Beyond

There's no escaping it, our days are numbered—but we can get ready and be prepared. Presentations to be held on Wednesdays: January 21st, (NOTE: Change of start date.), January 28th & February 11th. Guest speakers will lead discussions about how each person can finalize the details needed to ensure they are cared for, their wishes are respected, and their faith in the resurrection revealed.

These presentations will be held at Immaculate from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., with light refreshments being served at 6:45 p.m. Admission is free.

Initial planning includes the following presentations: • Estate Planning by a Financial Planner; • Pre-arranging a funeral by a City Funeral Director; • Liturgy of the Resurrection by a Parish Pastor; and • End of Life Care with Fr. Tom Lynch (Moral Theologian). The priests of the City Deanery invite everyone to attend for these very important informational talks.
