From the desk of the pastor...

Our body needs water in order to remain alive and perform its functions well. But material water is not the only “water” we thirst for. We do experience also the thirst for acceptance, understanding, affirmation, justice, truth, solidarity, compassion, love. Our happiness depends on the degree to which we manage to satisfy all these forms of “thirst.” That is why they impel us to search for what can satisfy them, in a constant tension between the aspiration of our hearts and minds, and different degrees of fulfillment that always fall short of perfection.

No creature seems capable of satisfying such deep forms of “thirst” in a perfect and lasting manner. This is so because our heart is made for God. It is made for the infinite. That is why we always seek for more. In God alone can we find peace and fulfillment. Unfortunately, many tend to forget it. In so doing, they expose themselves to a series of disappointments and frustrations, i.e. they are oriented toward something that will never satisfy them in full. Their life is like a train that moves along a wrong rail track that will never lead it to its destination.

This does not mean that those who make God the object of their yearning will always be fully happy and never experience trials and suffering. These things are part of our life on earth simply because this life is a test. We are still journeying toward our eternal happiness, but we are not yet there. But having one's heart set on God enables us to experience a great degree of peace even in the midst of difficulties and challenges, for we know that we are moving in the right direction.

All that we have to do is persevere in our quest for God in all that we do. When the journey ends, we will find ourselves in the “station” where all our aspirations and “thirsts” are satisfied in full and forever. On the other hand, those who have travelled along the wrong track will find themselves in the middle of nowhere, in a desert that will make their thirsts endlessly painful.

- Fr. Luis

Development and Peace

Caritas Canada

"Stand for the Land" Campaign 2023

Around the world, many communities are mobilizing to defend their territories against threats posed by extractive industries and industrial agriculture. These people are often threatened, criminalized, or even killed when they stand up to protect their lands, their livelihoods and their very existence.

Development and Peace – Caritas Canada stands in solidarity with these peoples. With our partners, we support communities' efforts to protect their territories and biodiversity for present and future generations.

A letter of support from +Most Reverend Bishop Raymond Poisson, CCCB President, is attached. Here is an excerpt from His Excellency's letter:

Therefore, I invite you to Create Hope by supporting Development and Peace's Stand for the Land campaign. Give generously, get involved in your community, be the hands and feet of Christ in the world: "[...] let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth (1 John 3:18)."

Food Bank: During these hard cost of living times there are new clients each month needing help and Lenten almsgiving would be a great support to our community Food Bank. An appeal has gone out for the following; Canned green beans, peas, corn niblets, canned fruit, sugar, instant coffee, macaroni, kids juice boxes, apple juice (1lr), no nut granola bars, and peanut butter. Please give as generously as possible to our collection boxes in the grocery stores. Your donations will go straight onto the shelves at this time. Prayers for all in need are always welcome. Our Food Bank baskets will be in the porch to receive any donations the Parish Family can give in support.
