From the desk of the pastor...

Aristotle has written, "It is easy to become angry. Anyone can do it. But to become angry at the right moment, to the right degree, for the right purpose, in the right manner, that is difficult. Only the wise person can accomplish it." What is implied in Aristotle's words is the realization that there are different kinds of anger. There is a destructive anger, which is unfocused, irrational, and wasteful. But there is also a constructive anger that is precise, appropriate, and useful. Aristotle believed that constructive anger is valuable.

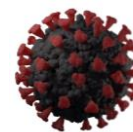

As children of God, we are required to do more than pray quietly and promote a peaceful inner disposition. We are also required to act on behalf of what is right, to oppose every evil, oppression, and discrimination. We do these things because we believe that they are contrary to God's kingdom. In this action against evil, there is a kind of anger that is very useful. Constructive anger is a virtue when it is exercised on behalf of the kingdom. Now this can surprise us because some of us were taught that anger is a sin. But only destructive anger is sinful. Constructive anger is not a sin. It is a positive and valuable part of human life. It is healthy.

Constructive anger helps us identify what is wrong, and it motivates us to work against it. If you recognize in your life a growing tendency toward self-indulgence and self-centeredness, constructive anger can motivate you to act, to turn things around. If you realize that you are experiencing abuse or manipulation in a relationship, constructive anger can force you to demand a change or to abandon the relationship altogether.

There is no doubt that Jesus is the Prince of Peace. But he is also the Lord of Justice. Jesus did not sit meekly by when he saw evil being imposed on others. Jesus was not afraid of constructive anger. He used it to build the kingdom. So, should we.

Keep smiling.

Fr. Luis

Update to Lockdown
Measures

It remains critically important for each of us to continue following the COVID-19 health precautions.

This includes:

- staying home when ill, even with mild symptoms;
- practising physical distancing of 2 metres or 6 feet with those outside your household or social circle;
- protecting your social circle;
- wearing a face mask that covers the nose, mouth, and chin;
- washing your hands frequently and thoroughly;
- collecting the contact tracing information; and
- adhering to gathering limits and rules.

The Ontario law 364/20 requires that everyone attending the church must wear a face mask

CWL Outreach: While the Food Banks priority must always be human food, clients also need some help with pet food. Dry dog and cat kibble would be very welcome as part of Lenten charity this March. It would be bagged and shared among those with pets and any pet treats would be offered for these animals so important as family members at this time. Thanks so much to the Parish family for ongoing support. Please consider donating in the designated boxes at our grocery stores and at the Food Bank itself, which is open 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Wednesdays.

THANK YOU!

Heartfelt Thanks to John Bryne...

COVID 19 has led to many trials and struggles for all of us but we also have experienced some special graces from God during this time. The parishioners of St. Aloysius and Our Lady Queen of Peace want to express our gratitude to our John Bryne for bringing us together in faith, to celebrate our Zoom Mass each Saturday evening. As we approach one year of Zooming, we are grateful for the fruits of John's efforts. A direct result of Zoom Mass is that we now have a Zoom Prayer Group and Zoom Stations of the Cross. John diligently promotes these activities every week and is the source of connectivity and technological issue resolution for our parishioners. We have experienced an awakening of faith in our communities. Sharing of good catholic resources, asking for prayers for ourselves and others, we are speaking about our faith, asking questions, and getting pretty excited. John the seed you planted is growing and we thank you. God Bless you and your Zoom evangelization!
