From the Desk of the Pastor...

The readings today give an air of resignation, and a whiff of hope – hope that is tied up with faith in a God of compassion, a God who is close to the broken-hearted, the suffering and those in any form of pain. First, there is Jairus, begging from the Lord: “Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live.”

Then, comes another heart-rending story of the woman who obviously had suffered enough, bleeding for all of 12 years! She did the expected and believed that all she needed to do was sneak from behind the Lord and touch his cloak!

Jairus probably thought he was at the end of his rope. So did the woman, who had tried everything and spent everything she had, with no success. But faith takes the better of both Jairus and the woman.

But there is good news for those who believe . . . “that for [our] sake, Christ Jesus became poor although he was rich, so that by his poverty [we] might become rich.”

Yes . . . we are told that there is a meaning to pain and suffering, even if we cannot see it fully at the moment of our direst need. There is more good news that we all need to unwrap or unravel . . . It is in what Jairus and the sick woman did. They did the expected, it is true. But what was not obvious is the reason why they did what was predictable. They did so, out of faith and hope and trust in Him who is the embodiment of the God of compassion – Jesus Christ! Both went running after the Lord despite the unbelief of others who perhaps were cynical right from the start. Jairus fell down before the Lord’s feet and begged in earnest. The woman ran after the Lord in the midst of throngs and showed her faith and hope by touching the tassel of his cloak.

They did their part. They showed their faith and hope. And the Lord, proved once and for all, then and now, for all days and for always – that our God is a God of compassion.

- Fr. Luis

Volunteers Needed: At this time a new caretaker needs to be recruited for our parishes. As this may take a few months, Fr. Luis is asking for volunteers - once a week through the summer, to clean the churches. This will include dusting, vacuuming and tidying. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church to add your name to the week you can help. If you have questions, please speak to Father Luis or contact the office.

OLOP:

Food Bank: Thanks to the Parish family for their continuing support of the neighbours in need, especially during the Fire Crisis. Thanks to the generosity of the general Bobcaygeon community there are stocks of clothes and furniture to help reestablish displaced families. However, the need for groceries and money still exists in these difficult times. Collection boxes at both stores and fundraisers throughout the summer need support. Other donations are always welcome at 55 Main Street (the Lions Hall). Please share what is possible.

June 2024 Prayer Intentions:
For migrants fleeing their homes

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

We pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys full of danger and violence, find welcome and new opportunities in the countries that receive them.
