From the Desk of the Pastor...

How can we apply this new commandment of love in our lives. Leo Buscaglia has suggestions on how to make relationships work since love is a kind of relationship too. Fr. Joseph Galdon, SJ called these suggestions the Ten Commandments of Love. Here is the lists to help us in our love relationships.

1. Take your time. A love relationship is not built overnight and so be patient and take your time.
2. Don't smother each other. Give them space too and allow them to move and don't let them feel that they are required to spend every waking hour with you.
3. Don't brood. Stop self-pity, self-blaming and the mea-culpa syndrome. It is because we are not as bad as we think.
4. Exercise feelings. Feelings have meaning only as they are expressed in action.
5. Forming a relationship takes a lot of looking. But looking can be fun. Grow up together constantly.
6. Don't be afraid. Stop all worry. Most of what you are worried about you'll have difficulty remembering a week later.
7. Learn to listen. You don't learn anything from hearing yourself talk. See all criticism as positive. Anyway, you are always free to reject it if it is unfair or does not apply.
8. Don't lose touch with the craziness in you. Keep the child in you alive and playing. Keep laughing. It exercises your heart and protects you from cardiac problems.
9. Don't be afraid or have disagreements and arguments. The only people who do not argue are people who don't care or are dead. After an argument is over, forget it. Learn to bend. Don't hold to anger, hurt and pain. They steal your energy and keep you from love.
10. Stop playing games. Relationships are not sporting events. Stop wrestling for control.

Prayer for Priests

Heavenly Father, pour out Your grace on the priests You have made. Let them remember that in performing their tasks, they are never alone.

Relying on Your almighty power and believing in Christ who called them to share in His priesthood, may they devote themselves to their ministry with complete trust.

Strengthen them with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and help them to serve their subjects. Through them, may Your Word be truly proclaimed, and may Your Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, be faithfully administered and devoutly received.

Amen.
