From the Desk of the Pastor...

Evening draws seemingly near for the whole world of late. The equivalent of sudden violent squalls are happening in many places all over the world and there seems to be no light at the end of the progressively darkening horizon.

Overcome by anxiety and worry, our prayer seems to re-echo that of the disciples: "Lord, do you not care?" In these times of grave uncertainty and in the face of so many disturbing realities and even more alarming possibilities, our prayer is more like a complaint instead of a pleading.

Our question is rather accusatory: "Do you not care?" Times there are in our life when worry and anxiety take the better of us. We go overboard. Unable to manage our anxiety, we bind the anxiety and express it externally as plain, old anger. Anger temporarily seems to solve the anxiety, for when anger erupts it is very easy to find an object for that anger. And once one finds an object, then anger is externalized. It is no longer me, but someone else to blame.

God, and everyone else who can take all that anger, and who will not retaliate or get even, becomes fair game to all that anger. The Lord knew better than to react to that knee-jerk reaction of someone hurting, someone frightened like the disciples who felt left in the lurch to fend for themselves, whilst he was there sleeping soundly on a cushion.

But the Lord does care. And his care shone out in his control of things that seemed so out of control at that point. "Quiet! Be still!" This, he said, for the sake of the frightened and anxiety-ridden disciples.

It is now his turn to ask us, calmly, without a tinge of accusation: "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" Stay with us, Lord, for evening draws near!

- Fr. Luis

World Day
for Grandparents
and the Elderly
2024

Prayer for the Fourth World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 28 July 2024

Lord, faithful God,
You who created us in Your image,
You who never leaves us alone
and who accompanies us through every season of life,
Do not abandon us, take care of us,
And grant us, once again,
The ability to discover ourselves and recognise that we are Your children.
Renew our hearts with your Word
And do not allow anyone to be cast aside.
May your Spirit of love fill us with Your tenderness

And teach us to say:
"I will not abandon you!"
To those we meet on our journey.
With the help of your beloved Son,
may we not lose the taste for fraternity
And may we not conform to the sadness of loneliness.
Help us to look to the future with renewed hope,
And make the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly
A day without loneliness, and a day abundant with the first-fruits of Your peace.
Amen.

Volunteers Needed: At this time a new caretaker needs to be recruited for our parishes. As this may take a few months, Fr. Luis is asking for volunteers - once a week through the summer, to clean the churches. This will include dusting, vacuuming and tidying. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church to add your name to the week you can help. If you have questions, please speak to Father Luis or contact the office.

OLQP:

Food Bank - Fire Update: All residents have temporary housing with one couple moving into permanent residence, with setting up help from the community committee. The response from Bobcaygeon has been very generous and with three storage lockers full of furniture in Lindsay and another here in Bobcaygeon full of clothing, linen, and household items we have run out of storage! The main challenge is finding accommodation, but help is being met with gratitude. It is a slow process. Thanks to the Parish Family for their kind support.
