From the Desk of the Pastor...

The readings of this 24th Sunday provoke us with the question of what it means to be on the side of God. Ordinarily, many people would take it for granted that they are on the side of God because they feel strongly about God and identify with one religious faith or another. Sometimes the practical implications of such commitment are ignored or given less attention. But what does it really mean to be other side of God?

The question is most evident in the Gospel text from Mark 8:27-35. Peter must have been shocked when Jesus told him point blank, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are not on the side of God but of men.” But what could have merited Peter such stern indictment, from a Master he evidently loved?

The simple reason is that Peter rejected suffering and tried to eliminate the Cross from the mission of Jesus. He didn’t see their relevance in what he thought was the glorious mission of Jesus. Even though he had earlier confessed the correct identity of Jesus as the Christ, the Messiah, he failed to reconcile it with the idea of suffering and being killed.

Jesus makes it clear that the best way to be on the side of God is to suffer for others, to suffer for the sake of truth and righteousness. In such readiness to suffer, one must not cling to one’s ego and one’s personal comfort. It is a difficult life, no doubt, but that is what is to be on God’s side.

Indigenous Reconciliation Fund Update

The IRF seeks to support projects that are determined by First Nations, Indigenous, and Métis partners that promote healing, dialogue, and education in our local communities. The IRF has awarded 8 grants worth nearly $160K across the Diocese of Peterborough. Help us fund more worthy projects and reach our diocesan commitment of $400K by giving to the special collection on September 21/22. Learn more and donate online at www.peterboroughdiocese.org.

Food Bank: The Food Bank thanks our ParishFamily for the help they were able to give during the summer, especially supplies for the children in our client families. This support remains greatly needed as we go into fall and winter. There is very real cost of living crisis in Bobcaygeon, as there is all over Canada, so please remember to share, as you are able, with those in the community. Donation boxes are ready at the two grocery stores. Thank you

What does it mean to have a Mass “offered” for someone?

Any individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit one’s soul.

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died. Therefore, the effects of the Mass bring certain benefits or fruits. The general fruits of the Mass are the effects upon the whole Church - to the living faithful as well as the poor souls in purgatory. For this reason, in the Canon of the Mass (the Eucharistic Prayer), a special mention is made for both the living and the dead. The special ministerial fruits of the Mass are applied to the particular intention of the Mass, i.e. “for whom this Mass is offered.” The intention of the Mass is also determined by various factors: The Church may stipulate the particular intention; for example, all pastors are required to offer one Mass on Sunday for the intentions of the living and deceased parishioners of a parish. A priest may also have his own particular intention in offering a Mass, such as the repose of the soul of his parents. Finally, a person may ask a priest to offer a Mass for a particular intention; usually, a $20 stipend is the offering, which thereby in justice creates an obligation which must be satisfied.

When we face the death of someone, even a person who is not Catholic, to have a Mass offered for the repose of his soul and to offer our prayers are more beneficial and comforting than any other sympathy card or bouquet of flowers. To have a Mass offered on the occasion of a birthday, anniversary or special need is appropriate, beneficial and appreciated.

September 2024 Prayer Intentions: FOR THE CRY OF THE EARTH

The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network has released the list of prayer intentions set by Pope Francis for the year 2024. Each month, Pope Francis asks Catholics around the world to pray for a specific intention.

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.
